

MISTAKEN TEARS
Luke 23:26-28

Jesus said in Luke 23:28, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.” It would seem as though the women’s tears for Jesus on the way to the cross are justified. But they have missed the point. The tears should be for them, and for all who turn against Jesus, and in effect put Him to death.

The attitude we take toward Jesus is of supreme importance. The great tragedy is to reject Jesus Christ. That is the ultimate reason for tears.
