

“NO MORE SEA”

Revelation 21:1-4

Rev. George Fletcher

Our Scripture passage in Revelation 21 contains a “no more” list of those things that will not bother us when we finally enter the presence of God in heaven. The list includes “no more death, no more sorrow, no more crying, no more pain, no more sea.” It’s a fine list, but one of those “no more’s” seems slightly out of place. Revelation 21:1 says, “Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, and there was no more sea.” What does John mean, “no more sea?” And how does it fit in with the other “no more’s?”

While we may find John’s reference to “no more sea” a bit strange or out of place, his readers certainly did not. “No more sea” sounded great to them. So what did he mean? And how is it relevant to us today?

What do we do with our “sea?”
