THE UNIQUENESS OF JESUS Colossians 1.15-23

For many people, Easter is simply a celebration of Jesus coming out of the tomb—but the Resurrection is far more than a moment to remember. It is the most significant event in history, the turning point that changes everything about our faith, our future, and our relationship with Christ. Over the next few weeks, we'll look more deeply at what the Resurrection truly means and why it still transforms our lives today.

Because of the uniqueness of Jesus...

1. ...WE ARE FORGIVEN.

...and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.
Colossians 1.20

2. ...WE HAVE LIFE.

But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation...
Colossians 1.22

In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. John 1.4

3. ...we look to Jesus to discover HOW TO BE TRULY HUMAN.

...he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy.
Colossians 1.18

4. ...we keep GROWING IN OUR FAITH.

...if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel.
Colossians 1.23

What is God saying to me?

What am I going to do about it?
